Memorandum on movements of L. Guterman and
A. Beerbrayer, Suspected Soviet Agents.

L. Guterman arrived in Shanghai from Tsingtao by the s.s. "Hoten Maru" on July 30, 1932. He is Russian of Jewish origin and a merchant by profession. He is strongly suspected by the Chinese Authorities in Tsingtao of being a Soviet Agent. His wife is a sister of M.M. Shvets a clerk employed at the local branch of the "Dalbank".

L. Guterman is said to have come to Shanghai in connection with the sale of Soviet goods, probably precious stones etc. on behalf of Gostorg (Soviet State Trading Syndicate).

In connection with this business he will be assisted by A. Beerbrayer a jewellery dealer who sells jewellery belonging to Gostorg on a commission basis (file D.162).

* A. Beerbrayer also arrived from Tsingtao by the s.s. "Hoten Maru" on July 30, 1932.

L. Guterman resides with A. Beerbrayer at Route Grouchy, Pass. 9, house No.16.

Sir,

With reference to an advertisement which appeared in the China Press on June 20th and which reads:-

'GREAT DIAMOND AUCTION SALE.

Having been favoured with instructions from the Concerned, will sell by Public Auction.

Tomorrow

Saturday, June 21st, 1930, at 2.30 p.m.

A Collection of Superb Diamonds and other Jewellery, amongst which are:-

1 Pair Diamond Earrings of 19.37 carats.

1 Single Stone Diamond Ring of 10.16 carats.

1 Single Stone Diamond Ring of 8.38 carats.

3 other single stone rings of over 5 carats each and 2 of over 4 carats each,- information has been received that these articles which were sold on June 21, 1930 at L. Moore & Co., Auction Room, were the property of Comrade A. Beerbrayer, a Russian jew. It is said that jewellery in which he trades is property confiscated by the "Gostorg" and also that received from the special fund of G.P.U. Some of the articles were previously exposed at Lipkovsky's "Siberian Jewellery Store," Nanking Road.

A. Beerbrayer arrived in Shanghai from Harbin on May 21, 1930 in the s.s. "Hoten Maru." He resides at 212A
Bubbling Well Road. He also rents a flat at 82 Nanking Road, occupied by Mr. Lipkovsky, where his wife intends to open a dentist's office.
